Etchings

Etchings

ETCHINGS...

of a familiar face through the mind's eye
a glimpse of past and timeless achievement
the quest, the challenge
met,
the triumph
a fleeting moment frozen
in time
formulation of ideas and ideals
captured patterns of thought and activity
memories passed forever
present

Joys too exquisite to last,
And yet more exquisite
When past.

James Montgomery
The Little Cloud

... People should wake up and dream again.
"Notes of a College Revolutionary" from
THE STRAWBERRY STATEMENT

James Simon Kunen

Only one in a million is awake enough for effective intellectual exertion,
only one in a hundred millions to a poetic or divine life. To be awake is to be alive. . .
"Where I Lived, and What I Lived For"

WALDEN
Thoreau

True luck consists not in holding the best of the cards
at the table:
Luckiest he who knows just when to rise and go home.

Our earth is but a small star
in the great universe.
Yet of it we can make,
if we choose,
a planet untroubled by war,
untroubled by hunger or fear, undivided by senseless distinctions of race, color, or theory.

Prayer, written for and read by FDR to the United Nations on Flag
Day, June 14, 1942

A sense of priorities . . .
the promise of a bright future . . .

It is a woman, and only a woman,
a woman all by herself, if she likes,
and without any man to help her,
who can turn a house into a home.

Frances Power Cobbe

"you've got a friend . . ."

Carole King

Where did you say? Radcliffe?

We may live without friends;
 we may live without books;
 But civilized man can not live without cooks.
 He may live without books,
 what is knowledge, but grieving?
 He may live without hope, what is hope but deceiving?
 He may live without love, what is passion but pining?
 But where is the man that can live without dining?

Edward Robert Bulwer
 Lytton, Earl of Lytton
 ("Owen Meredith")

A shaft of sunlight, warming like a friend's disarming smile . . .

... where you lead
I will follow ...
